

cumbria

Thinking about working in England's most beautiful county*?

It isn't the UK's top tourist destination for nothing.

Don't fancy living in a place where everybody knows your name (like Cheers)?

Cumbria probably isn't your cup of tea.

Don't want strangers stopping to chat and ask how things are going?

Then maybe this isn't the place for you.

Can't bear life without a morning traffic jam?

You definitely won't like it here.

Maybe you should stop reading here...

So what's Cumbria really like?

Is it just lakes and fells?

we've got this...

... and we've got this ↑ (and everything in between) ↗

we've got bars that look like this...

Price of a pint in London

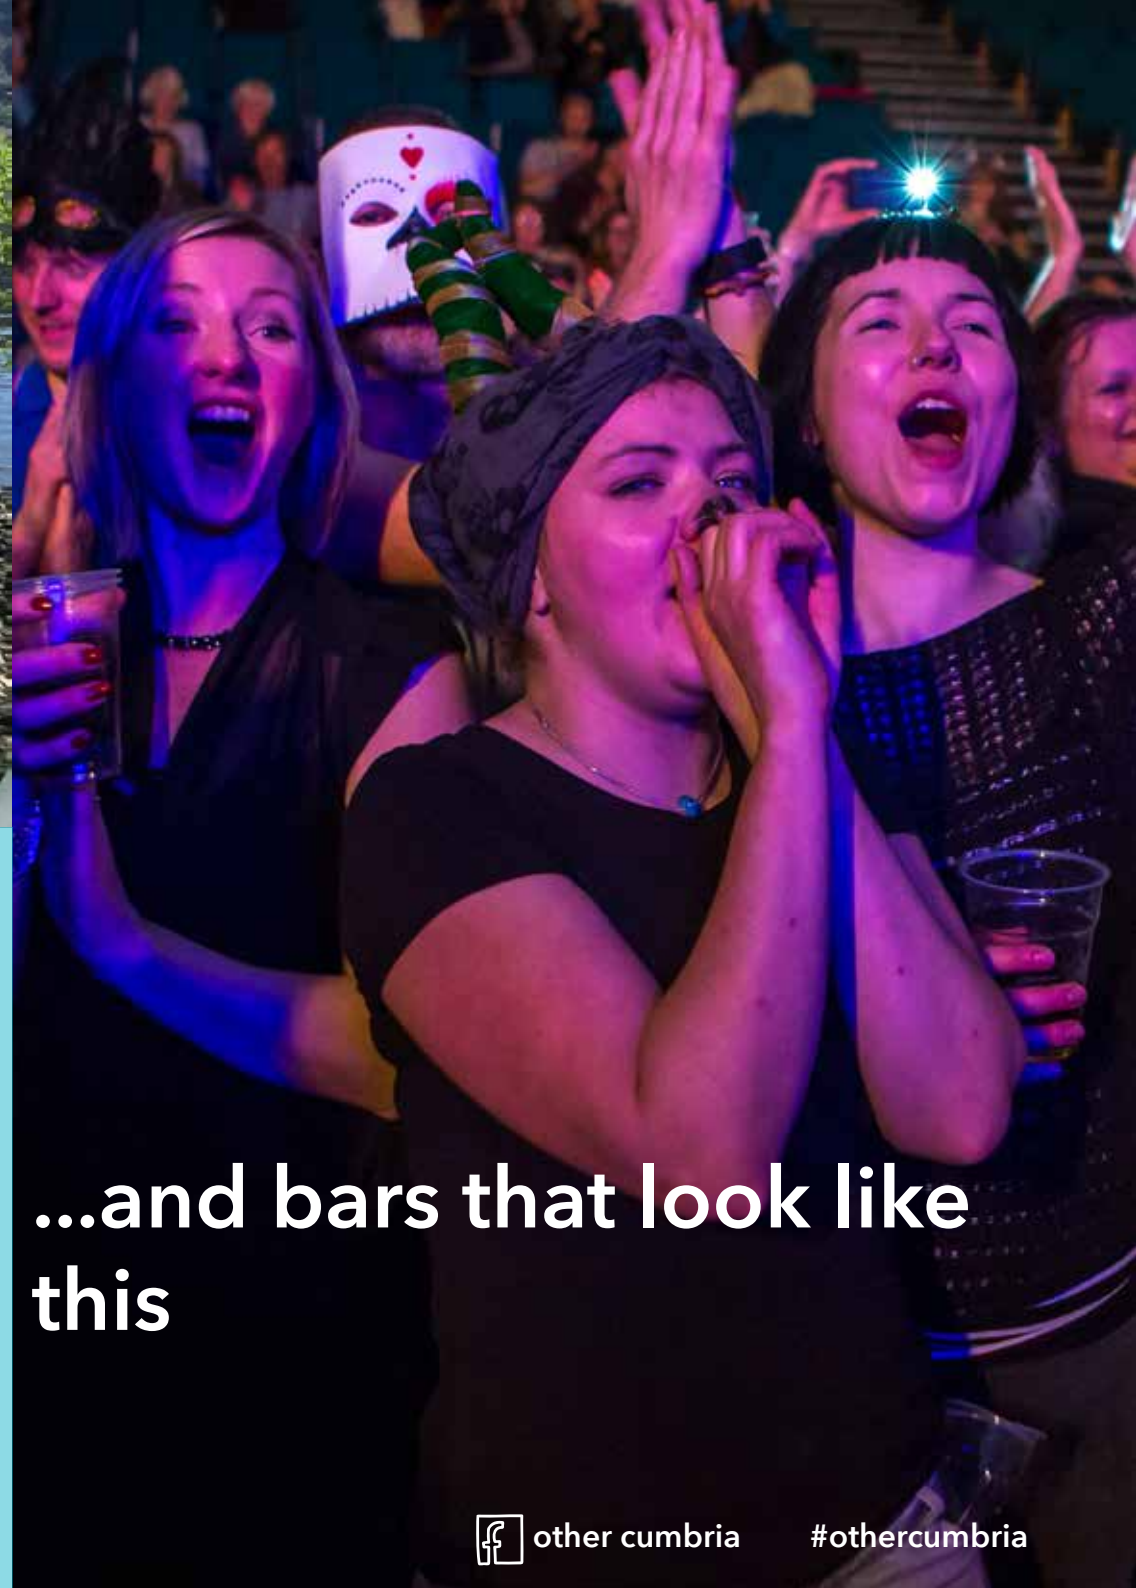

£4.65

(HOW MUCH!?)

versus

£2.80

in Cumbria
much better!

...and bars that look like this

we've got evening entertainment

The Winter Droving, Penrith
Slightly pagan, masked fire and lantern festival.

and of course there are the usual shops

Next... Debenhams... House of Fraser blah blah blah along with the more unusual ones...

Market towns Keswick, Ambleside and Cockermouth all have independent shops and cafes just waiting to be discovered...

a busy day at the local
pool

a busy day at the local
pool

in Eden alone, 7 villages have outdoor pools!

and there's this (for free)!

it's never too late to try something new
